FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 27, 1880.

Our Democratic exchanges are no happy over the result of the Republican conference in Chicago. There was too winginamimity about it to suit the agie of our Bourbon friends.

-THE dyspeptic editor of the Champaign Union continues to belch forth the wind from his sour stomach, and the direction in which he holds his mouth indicates that the dose given him by the REPUBLICAN a year or two ago still agisates the region beneath his lower vest button. It was "bad medicine." no de ht.

SINCE Phocion Howard's Bourbon has going the way of so many others of its kind-given up the ghost, as it werethe Democratic papers of this district are very holdly attacking the politics of ita late editor, and swearing he never wan a true Democrat. The funny thing about the matter is, that they were all as mute as mice while Phocion had a notispaper of his own through which to fight back. It is the old story of the living donkey kicking the dead lion. To borrow the language of Nast, in one of his cartoons, "and such a lion, and whom replied warmly approving the siich a jackan!"

THE Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald says:

Senator Blaine is reported to have de over a quarter of a million recentin the Leadville mines. He is large-31 interested in two of the leading mines,—having gone in on "the ground floor" in both. He was associated with Senstor Plumb and ex-Delegate S. B. Elkins in stocking the Amy Mine, and is said to have trebled an investment of 14. $70,000 in that operation. He was engaged with the Hon. John B. Alley, the an interest in the campaign, you will then. A. H. Rice, and others in stocking do more good in that way than in any the Dunkin Mine, and that, too, has been a very profitable operation. Next to Mr. Blaine, the man who is said to have made the most money is his cousin, Tom Ewing, of Ohio, who devotes all his time to his stocks, and is seldem seen in the House. He was a pauper last year, when he was declaiming in favor of the repeal of the Resumption act, and now he is worth over $290,000.

Tun conference of leading Republicans in Chicago on the 25th instant, was noticeable in more respects than one, but in none more so than in the presence and active co-operation of a bistory have questions between the number who have been "a little off" during the past few years. Among these was Hon. Joseph Gillespie, of Madison county, who has been prominent as a greenbacker for some years one, and can be utilized in other states past. The report of his speech on this than Ohio. occasion says:

He had not been in direct sympathy with the Republican party, but this time his course was plain. He must either vote for a man who had helped to save the Union, or for one of these who had attempted to destroy it. In such a case he had no healtation. He thought it as well to give the Government at once to the Bibles as to the Democrate. He for one would never vote for a member of that party which in this city in 1864 sol-emnly resolved that it was wrong to at-tempt to suppress the Rebellion. Of course, he had neveronal preferences but course he had personal preferences, but smash-ups. he was ready to slak them in view of the azinting exigency, and he would vote under all circumstances for the nominee of the party that saved the Union. He wanted nothing for himself,—his course was atmost run,—but he hoped Almighty God would let him live long enough to see the triumph of the Republican party once more.

One of the editors of the Iowa State Journal is for Grant and the other for Blaine; vet both think it may be well to have the convention instruct its delegation, and neither seems to doubt much that the choice will be for Blaine.

J. R. Thomas-I think that Grant will unquestionably receive the support of the Illinois delegates. We have some state pride. Maine should support Blaine and Ohio Sherman.

P. C. Hays-Am for Grant.

HON. JAMES DALZELL, of Ohio, commonly called "Private" Dalzell, has undertaken the organization of Republican clubs of young men who will east their first vote this year. In furtherance of his scheme he wrote to a number of leading Republicans, many of plan. Gen. Joe. Hawley wrote: "I am not surprised at what you say concerning the number of those under twenty five who are enlisting as Republicans. I am sure that in my own town the large majority of young men of intelligence are taking the same direction. You and I do not see how it could be otherwise, but it is none the less satisfactory and reassuring as to the condition of the country." Senator Don Cameron said: "It seems to me you are on the right track, and that if you get the young men between the ages of twenty and twenty-two to take other. They have more enthusiasm, are willing to work harder, and tire less quickly than other men." General Ben Harrison wished him godspeed in the work, and said: "When a young man identifies himself with the Republican party he enters into an inheritance of great and inspiring memories. In the modern history of the Democratic party I see nothing that tends to kindle patrictium or to develop a love of freedom, truth or justice in the young." Secretary Sherman wrote: "The first vote cast is apt to fix the inclination and principles of the voter, from which he is not likely to depart unless for strong reasons. At no period of our parties been more distinctly marked than now, nor were they ever more important. The Republican party is the party of progress, of liberal ideas and of national aims." LICENSE OR NO LICENSE-No. 3.

Statistics furnish us with undeniable proof that a certain number die annually from the use of alcoholic beverages, and that a certain amount of disability to labor, panperism, insanity, orphanage, widowhood, poverty and crime, result annually from the same source. In short, no one thing is more universally conceded among our observing and enlightened communities, than that the sale and use of alcoholic drinks are the greatest curse to which the American people are sub

Now, as there must be a starting point for all the evils of intemperance, it follows that if we can cripple or suppress this starting point, we shall make one great step towards removing the evils, for no one has ever died or committed a crime from the use of alcoholic drinks without previously having commenced the use of them. Then, it is sufficient for the present for us to decide, as far as possible, whether public licensed saloons, surrounded by all the respectability that a legalized traffic can afford them, and all the allurements that human ingenuity can invent, are any more apt to become the starting point—the place for the initial dram-than the little out of the way hole that has the ban of the law against it, and the condemnation of every respectable and law-abiding citizen in De-To many it will appear silly to argue this point, and yet it has been forced upon us by the bold assertions of license men, who tell us that more liquor will be sold and more mischief done without, than with license. Applied to any other business such an assertion would be thought highly abourd. Careful enquiry will reveal the fact that a large number of mentwho formerly took a dram occasionally in our filcensed saloons, do not now take them at all; simply because they cannot obtain [them by what they consider honorable means. The reasons for this are obvious. Licensed saloons are generally something more than mere obtained. They are coften places of social intercourse. There are no legal checks to prevent a saloon-keeper from ally he aims to do so. Of course we do tary of war for his courtesy. not have in Decatur such saloons as may be found in some of our larger cities, where no expense is spared to make them attractive. But even here they are made sufficiently comfortable and attractive as to come into strong competition with laboring men. And right here it is a strong point against licensed saloons; ments. Mechanics and common laborers, with others, visit them at first, not so much for the dram as for other purposes. They meet their fellow workmen and laborers there. Politics, business, even religion and other subjects are discussed. A little gossip intervenes ; anecdotes are told, and a good time is had generally. If the matter could rest right here, we could not seriously object. But it never does! It never will!

The dram that was first taken out of respect to the solicitation of a friend, or in appreciation of the means employed to administer to the comforts and pleasure of visitors, soon or late becomes to be the dram of an imagined necessity. Then in a majority of instances the die is cast. The victim is a confirmed inebriate, and was made such in the popular saloon, and not in the drug store, nor in stockholders. The operators, who are one of the secret dens already mentioned | known to have been professionals, gain-so frequently. It will be in place here to say something about the drug stores. They are accused by some of being common places for der so far as Decatur drug stores are concerned. There may possibly be two or three druggists in the city who, under certain circumstances, will furnish a friend, or a few friends if you like, with stimulants. Such a thing we would naturally expect. But suppose every druggist in the city would do so, the effects would be incomparably small contrasted with the results following in the wake of twenty-five or thirty licensed saloons. If by-standers, and then tarry until some one else sets them up for the same set, or stores by the score to indulge in drinking. And, of more importance than all else, our drug stores are not the places where the initial step—the first glass—is taken. As being the first to entice unwary man from the paths of temperance the popular licensed saloon must ever stand with-

Sherman were endorsed from the war department to the president, who directed them referred to Gen. Sherman for such remarks as he may deem necessary. Gen. Sherman endorses the document, saying he now sees it for the first time. He deems it an insult to his office, to his record, and to a name which has stood for sixty years without a single imputation on his honor or integrity. He declares, as to the various specifications that his letters respecting Boynton's falsity are true in every respect; that he has never maligned or misrepresented his comrades in arms, but on the contrary has had the warmest admiration for them, although he was obliged in his memoirs, sometimes, to relate their faults. He acknowledges the right of Boynton to prefer charges, but objects to a court martial as being too expensive for the government and suggests a criminal libel charges in the court of the District of Columbia. He is abundantly ready to answer before any court and has employed Senator Carpenter as counsel. Boynton to day answered this in another to Secretary Ramsey. He sets forth that Gen. Sherman objects to military tribunal, that he obects to a submitting his memoirs to a military court, which alone could properly test their accuracy. He accepts as places where the coveted dram can be self evident that civil courts are open for cases of slander, but his charge is, "conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman," an offense not known to making his place of business comfort the civil courts. They have chosen delegates to Chicago to represent their views. A small majority of the state convention disagreed with them, but that is of no account. The delegates are bound by all considerations of political honesty to vote at Chicago as the constituents who chose them expect them to vote, and they will be held closely to their duty.'

Each pleaded guilty to 42 counts in the indictment on the charge of keeping open a tippling house, and this offense, under the statutes, is not subject to a jail sen tence. Judge Smith fined Sells $320 and costs on the last 32 counts in the indictment, and ordered him to stand commit ted until the same is paid. Under the insolvent debtor's act, in case Selis can show that he has no money nor property subject to execution he can be released from custody on this fine, but on the first ten counts the Judge fined Sells $100 and costs, and this amount he will have to pay or work out on the streets at $1.50 a Ws are authorized to announce THEODORE NELSON as a candidate for City Treasurer. day. If the work is distasteful to him all he will have to do is to pay the $100 and costs, and he can go free, provided he can schedule out on the $320 fine. Heretofore it has been an easy matter for irresponsible parties to sched. ule out, but the course that Judge Smith has pursued will compel Sells to pay $100 and costs, and Weber $70 and costs, or work out the amounts on the public streets. Rinchart, who pleaded guilty to three counts for selling liquor to minors, and was fined $60 and costs, and ordered to pay up or work out the amount on the streets, will have to pay or lay in jail unless he works out the fine. Lout and Saved To-Night-Programme for Next Week, and Press Testimenials. To-night the popular temperance dranatic cantain entitled "Lost and Saved;

or, Harry Gray's fall and reformation," in three acts and six beautiful tableaux, will be presented by home talent for the first time in this city, under the direction of Prof. S. M. Lutz and W. R. Scruggs .-This great musical event has been in preparation for a number of weeks, and we doubt not will be the most entertaining and at the same time the most affecting musical dramatization ever offered to the public. This same play was given at Cortland, Maine, and the Standard said: The Temperance Dramatic Cantata, as rendered by the home talent of Cortland, Me., on the 14th and 15th insta., was one of the finest entertainments that we ever attended. The influence of this touching drama 'Lest and Saved' will long be felt, and do much toward moulding the public mind to a higher plaine of moral excellence and teaching them the importance of united persistent effort in behalf of lost and fallen humanity." See cast of characters in another column. Reader, go yourself and take your family. Admis sion, 50, 35 and 25 cents. JANAUSCHRE

Of this great actress who is to hold the boards at the opera house, supported by a strong company, on Monday evening next, in "Mary Stuart," and on Tuesday evening, in "Lady Macbeth," the press universally speak in the highest terms of praise. Read:

"OUR GERMAN SENATOR."

On Thursday evening next, March 4th, the great comedian, Gus Williams, will give us "Our German Senator," at the opera house. The Senutor is a humorous satire on the possibilities of every day political life, and is crowded with fun and laughter. Everywhere the play is pronounced the latest, brightest and greatest success of the season, and as such is everywhere liberally patronized. Reserved seats may be had at Curtis & Ewing's three days in advance at 75 cents each. General admission, 50 and 35 cents.

After Gus Williams comes Charles L Davis in "Alvin Joslin," on Friday event ing, March 5th. A great success.

On Monday evening, March 8th, at the the tabernacle, Thad. P. Varney, Maggie Varney and Master Vivian, America's favorite humorists and facial artists, will give a fine entertainment which will surely attract a big crowd.

Now is the Time TO BUY YOUR GOODS.

Every description of merchandise IS ADVANC-ING, and although our Sales last year, and particularly during the fall and winter, were very large, our stock was continually augmented by new purchases, in anticipation of the GREAT ADVANCE; so that we are now prepared to sell every description of Goods

We have never attempted to mislead the public by FLASH ADVERTISEMENTS, nor by giving fictitious values to goods on paper—a scheme resorted to by mountebanks to mislead the unwary. We do say, however, that outside a few articles which are sold alike almost everywhere, and in which there is but little or no profit, we can save consumers from 10 to 20 per cent.

We have yet on hand a Handsome Assortment of CLOAKS, DOLMANS and SHAWLS, that we are selling at GREAT BAR-GAINS. Also a Splendid Assortment of BLANKETS, FLANNELS, BLEACHED and BROWN MUSLINS, KENTUCKY JEANS, GINGHAMS, CHEVIOTS, TICKINGS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIE-RY, GLOVES, CORSETS, DRESS TRIMMINGS, LINN & SCRUGGS.

We again beg to call the attention of purchasers to our Superior Assortment of Cloaks, and wish to remind those in want of the article that we have nothing but all wool, and a superior Union Beaver Cloak in stock now. We offer these elegant goods at actual cost, and we mean exactly what we say. We are not given to exaggerations, as any unprejudiced purchaser who has examined our stock and priced our goods in detail can testify. We do not sell Dry Goods, and do not find it necessary to make up in Hosiery, Corsets, Fancy Goods or Notions, the short profits on Calicoes and Domestics. There is hardly an article in the vast line that we carry that we do not sell lower than the same class of goods were ever bought at in this city before. While we don't claim to sell better goods than our competitors, we do claim that ALL OUR GOODS are fresh, new, and in good shape, and equal to the best in the market. Our assortment is never allowed to be broken for a single day, and we add new goods daily.

Overstocked as we are in Winter Goods of all kinds, we offer extra inducements at this time, and more especially in all kinds of Hosiery and Men's and Ladies' Underwear. If desired, we can convince buyers, in black and white, that we DO offer all winter or heavy weight g

The Sherman Diamonds News of the present whereabouts of the magnificent diamond necklace which was presented by the Khedive of Egypt to Mrs. Pitch, daughter of General

from a diamond merchant by the Con

cuman Enquirer. It will be remem bered that this necklace was deemed worth $200,000, and congress remitted

the duties, $20,000, for the non pay ment of which it was long detained in the New York Custom House "After

this," says the informant "the necklace

Sherman, seems to have been obtained was sent to Washington, and with Gen Sherman's sword, deposited in the United States Treasury for safe keep ing Upon further inquiry, Lieutenant Fitch ascertained that the yearly taxes on the diamonds in St Louis County, where he then resided, would be much more than his salary, and he once more found them an elephant on his hands His father in law, General Sherman, took pity on the boy and returned the necklace, with thanks, to the donor in Egypt Upon receiving them the Khedive wrote to the general saying that it was not his desire that the diamonds should be given to any one member of his family, and having learned that he had four daughters, it was his wish that the diamonds should be mounted in sets and divided equally between them These daughters are Mrs Fitch nee Minnie Sherman, Ella Sherman, Luzzic Sherman and Rachel Sherman The necklace was then returned to the Sherman family and mounted in four magnificent pendants, four pair of splen did solitaire earrings and eight rings These four ladies are now the happy possessors of four complete suits of diamonds, the value of each suit being
